ROLL

OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF
TENNESSEE,
For 1867, With a Record of the Occupation, Profession, and of the Public Services of the Members.

The New Officers of the Legislature.

THE SENATE.

HON. D. W. C. SENTER, of Grainger county, was elected Speaker of the Senate yesterday, after a protracted and closely contested balloting.
The new Speaker, although the youngest member of the Senate, is a legislator of considerable experience—having served three terms as a member of the House, and one term as a member of the Senate. He is a lawyer by profession, one of the best popular speakers and debaters in the State, and has much more than ordinary talents. By common consent he is pronounced a parliamentarian of the first order, is ready on all points of order; and with his easy, unassum-ing manner, and uniform courtesy and urbanity, cannot fail to become a universal favorite in his new position.
Altogether, may be classed as one of the strong and rising men of the State, with a bright career before him.

D. M. NELSON, of Bradley county, Principal Clerk of the Senate, served with credit as Captain in the Ninth Tennessee Cavalry, in the Union army.
He is quite young, a gentleman of fine abilities, and a highly promising popular speaker. He is a fine penman and has accommodating manners, and has the capacity to make one of the most popular clerks who ever officiated in the Senate chamber.

DR. WM. BAKER, of Warren county, the Engraving Clerk, is the editor of the McMinnville Enterprise, one of the best county papers in the State.
He has labored like a hero in the Union cause, and is well qualified for the position he has attained.

WM. T. CATE, of Hamilton county, Principal Doorkeeper, was chosen on the first ballot to retain the position he filled with general acceptance last session. He served in the Fifth Tennessee Infantry, against the rebellion, and has always been as true as steel. His pluck was repeatedly tested by the secessionists, in the last Legislature, and he always filled the measure of official duty.

B. T. R. FOSTER, the Assistant Door-keeper, served gallantly in the Union army, and is highly commended as a true, capable and efficient man.

THE HOUSE.

HON. F. S. RICHARDS, the new Speaker of the House, is from Shelby county, and is noted as a railroad and business man of great energy and enterprise. He was a popular member of the last House, active and industrious, possessing great sagacity of manner, and with a little experience will get a long smoothly with the business of the House.
GEORGE E. GRISHAM, Principal Clerk of the House, is the editor of the Jonesboro' Flag, a vigorous and highly efficient journal during the recent campaign. He is a good soldier and a good writer, and a gentleman of highly estimable character. He has never missed fire, either as an officer in the Union army, in the State Guard, or in the editorial chair. He has been honored with oceans of rebel abuse and blackguardism, and we have a fellow feeling for him.
MR. CUNNINGHAM, the Assistant Clerk, is re-elected to the post he occupied with great acceptance in the last House. He has experience, is courtious and industrious, and will discharge his duties very efficiently.
